Hi everyone,

Breaking news!

Melbourne beat Sydney in the recent Melb/Sydney challenge at Wagga Wagga by 1.889 pts.

What a fantastic effort by all.

There were 12 players from Melbourne and 9 from Sydney.

We had a great weekend with a get-together at the RSL on Friday night and a presentation dinner at the Golf Club on Saturday night. Great to catch up with the Sydney guys and the Sydney and Melbourne wives.

Check out the photos on our website under Gallery.

AUVGC Rule for the month

Playing the ball as it lies

The rules generally do not permit you to improve the position of the ball. You may not bend or break anything growing or fixed except in taking a fair swing. You are not allowed to press anything down but you can remove loose natural impediments such as stones, twigs or fallen leaves for no penalty, except in a hazard.
In a bunker or a water hazard, you are not allowed to ground your club before you hit the ball.
