Captain's Report

EYNESBURY GOLF CLUB – 26th JULY 2009

What a magnificent morning. The bureau of meteorology predicted rain and cold weather, but who are we Ukrainians to believe the weather(man) person.

As my card marker stated, you could not ask for better weather, as we started our assault of this fantastic Eynesbury course, not a breath of wind, ever so mild and this course is such fantastic condition.

I had the pleasure of playing with two other committee members being Leon Churutskj and the president Mick Charenko and my son Mykola, and on this solmer day of mourning for me I had a lot on my mind.

I do have to apologies to Michael Charenko for not announcing his great achievement of 200 games, though I acknowledged him and presented him with a club towel and club pen prior to the game, Mick please accept my apology for this and my congratulations for 200 games.

Back to the game, my group teed of on the 10th hole, such a challenging hole to start with, Leon led the way with one of his special drives, you know the ones he is capable of, and followed by Mick Charanko, at least one could see his ball on the fairway, but Mick was out driven on this hole by my son Mykola (who I must say is only a novice at this game, having only played six games to date) who hit the best drive he has ever done and the kid was very proud that he out drove the president on the 1st hole, of course this did not last very long, the kid had to pick up his ball after the 10th shot on this hole, but his statement was his good drive to begin with.

These undulating fairways were in such good condition, but if you strayed of into the ruff you were in trouble – finding ones ball in the ruff was almost impossible – but finding other lost balls in the ruff was easy, I call this the Eynesbury ruff, a hazard on every hole, a player would prefer to be in a bunker than in the ruff, at least you knew where you ball was and you could get a shot out of the bunker – I think our lost ball searches should have had a field day picking up stray balls out of this long grass, not only the long grass, some of the water hazards not to mention the small bushes, I took a photo of a ball I found on the 7th hole see attachment..

It was the same sort of ball as I was using, but thank the lords it wasn't mine.

I was playing this game with the memory of my father, whom I lost 23 years ago this day, and having my own son by my side and the company of some good friend around, made for a very pleasant tribute.

Speaking about tributes, maybe we should dedicate some of our games in honor of past members or families, just to say we remember them.

Unfortunately I will not be at our next game at Growling Frog, but wish you all a good game.

Till next time.

HOW FIGHTS STARTS.....

My wife sat down on the settee next to me as I was flipping channels.
She asked, 'What's on TV?'
I said, 'Dust.'

And then the fight started...

My wife and I were watching "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire" while we were in bed. I turned to her and said, "Do you want to have sex?" "No," she answered. I then said, "Is that your final answer?" She didn't even look at me this time, simply saying, "Yes." So I said, "Then I'd like to phone a friend."

And then the fight started....

Saturday morning I got up early, quietly dressed, made my lunch, and slipped quietly into the garage. I hooked up the boat up to the van, and proceeded to back out into a torrential downpour. The wind was blowing 50 mph, so I pulled back into the garage, turned on the radio, and discovered that the weather would be bad all day. I went back into the house, quietly undressed, and slipped back into bed. I cuddled up to my wife's back, now with a different anticipation, and whispered, "The weather out there is terrible." My loving wife of 5 years replied, "Can you believe my stupid husband is out fishing in that?"

And that's how the fight started...

I rear-ended a car this morning.. So, there we were alongside the road and slowly the other driver got out of his car. You know how sometimes you just get so stressed and little things just seem funny? Yeah, well I couldn't believe it.... He was a DWARF!!! He stormed over to my car, looked up at me, and shouted, "I AM NOT HAPPY!!!" So, I looked down at him and said, "Well, then which one are you?"

And then the fight started.....

My wife was hinting about what she wanted for our upcoming anniversary. She said, 'I want something shiny that goes from 0 to 150 in about 3 seconds.' I bought her a bathroom scale.

And then the fight started...

After retiring, I went to the Social Security office to apply for Social Security. The woman behind the counter asked me for my driver's License to verify my age. I looked in my pockets and realized I had left my wallet at home. I told the woman that I was very sorry, but I would have to go home and come back later. The woman said, 'Unbutton your shirt'. So I opened my shirt revealing my curly silver hair. She said, 'That silver hair on your chest is proof enough for me' and she processed my Social Security application. When I got home, I excitedly told my wife about my experience at the Social Security office.. She said, 'You should have dropped your pants. You might have gotten disability, too.'

And then the fight started...

When I got home last night, my wife demanded that I take her some place expensive... so, I took her to a petrol station.

And then the fight started...

My wife and I were sitting at a table at my school reunion, and I kept staring at a drunken lady swigging her drink as she sat alone at a nearby table. My wife asked, 'Do you know her?' 'Yes,' I sighed, 'She's my old girlfriend. I understand she took to drinking right after we split up those many years ago, and I hear she hasn't been sober since.' 'My God!' says my wife, 'who would think a person could go on celebrating that long?'

And then the fight started...

I took my wife to a restaurant. The waiter, for some reason took my order first. "I'll have the steak, medium rare, please." He said, "Aren't you worried about the mad cow?" "Nah, she can order for herself."

And then the fight started....

A woman was standing nude, looking in the bedroom mirror. She was not happy with what she saw and said to her husband, "I feel horrible; I look old, fat and ugly. I really need you to pay me a compliment.' The husband replied, 'Your eyesight's damn near perfect.'

And then the fight started.....
