Golf can best be defined as an endless series of tragedies, obscured by the occasional miracle, followed by a good bottle of beer!

Editor's Corner

Pryvit vsim! / Greetings!

Congratulations go to Slawko Kohut for beating George Makohon in the Matchplay final at Goonawarra on 30 May.

I believe it was a pretty even game and was won on the 18th.
Commiserations George!

I would like to wish Greg Horoch a speedy recovery from his recent hip surgery. Greg, if you play golf like you do with a bad hip, God help us when you recover!

I have heard also that Greg lost his younger brother recently. Our thoughts are with you.

On a happier note, I am looking forward to the Melbourne/Sydney challenge on the long weekend.

At present we have 18 Melb & 14 Sydney players braving it.

C'mon Melbourne!

Details are in the newsletter if you would like to attend.

Old handicapping system. Player has insufficient cards to translate to new system.

* Special development handicap.

Happy Handicapper Notes

In the early phase of the new handicap system, handicaps will jump around, some dramatically. So, please ensure that you check your handicap immediately prior to the AUVGC game.

For non-Golf Link members that means reading the latest edition of the Newsletter.

Summarising the major changes:

- For the AUVGC the new handicapping system commenced in May. All players' handicaps will be calculated using the new system.
- The new system is based on averaging the player's best scores.
- The concept of CCR no longer exists.
- Golf Link members must use their most current handicap in AUVGC games. If they fail to do so they will be disqualified.
- Non-Golf Link members will have their handicaps calculated by the Handicapper. These will be listed in the Newsletter. Failure to use up-to-date handicaps will mean disqualification.
- Non-Golf Link members handicaps will take some time to 'settle'.
- The Handicapper can only work with official game cards.
- Members require a minimum of 3 cards to translate to the new system. Members who have not submitted the required number of cards will continue to play off their previous AUVGC 'Playing Handicap' (marked with a #).
